

STATE OF MAINE JUDICIAL BRANCH
PANDEMIC MANAGEMENT ORDER
Order Issued March 30, 2020

Emergency Rule from the Supreme Judicial Court for the Filing of Documents in Priority Case Types

The Clerk's offices of the Judicial Branch are being inundated with emails from parties and counsel that do not comply with previous orders issued by the Supreme Judicial Court or the Trial Court Chiefs. This Order is intended to re-enforce and reiterate the requirement that only certain documents may be sent to Clerk's offices by email.

In response to the public health concerns arising from the novel coronavirus (COVID-19), only certain cases are being scheduled or heard in Maine's courts. To allow for those specified cases to be heard safely, efficiently, and effectively, certain petitions, applications, complaints, motions, and reports in any of the matters that are being scheduled and heard may be filed by email, Mondays through Friday, between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m. Each email filing must be sent to the Clerk at the email address provided by the Clerk and to opposing counsel, or if unrepresented by counsel, to the opposing party.

Only petitions, applications, complaints, motions, and reports in the following case types may be filed by email:

- Motion for appointment of guardian on an emergency basis
- Motion to continue
- Motion for conference or hearing to be conducted by telephone or video

Other

- Exhibit for hearing that has been approved for telephonic or video hearing

In all other respects, the application, petition, complaint, or motion must comply with the rules of civil procedure and applicable statutory requirements and deadlines.

Every pleading and motion filed by email is subject to the requirements of M.R. Civ. P. 11(a). In order to comply with M.R. Civ. P. 11(a), any application, petition, complaint, or motion sent to the court by email must include the following language: "I certify that there are good grounds to support this pleading, that it complies with PMO-SJC-3, and that it is not being filed to cause any delay." This language must be followed by an "s/" signature line containing the printed name of the filing party/attorney.

In addition to email, if utilized, a paper copy must be mailed to the court and to opposing counsel, or if unrepresented by counsel, to the opposing party.

Any email received that is not in accordance with this order will be rejected by the Clerk, and no filing will have occurred. Repeated violations of this order may result in sanctions.
